Advocates Engaged by New Bank of India

4009. SHRI JERLIE E. TARIANG: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) the minimum period of practice at the Bar required for becoming a panel advocate of New Bank of India in Rohtak district of Haryana;

(b) the names of the advocate with their length of practice at the Bar at the time of their appointment as panel advocate of New Bank of India in Rohtak district during the last five years;

(c) the number of cases entrusted to each of panel advocate and fees paid to each panel advocate yearwise during the last five years;

(d) the number of cases lost by New Bank of India in Rohtak district during the last five years and the amount involved therein; and

(e) the action taken against the erring officials and advocates for the failure of the recovery cases?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI JANARDHAN POOJARI): (a) The New Bank of India has reported that since January, 1986 advocates having a minimum practice of 10 years at the Bar are generally empanelled. Prior to 1986, the main criteria for empanelment of advocates was merit and standing of an advocate and not the length of practice at the Bar. The advocates who were empanelled prior to above cut off date are still continuing.

(b) The names of advocates who are on the panel of New Bank of India for Rohtak District who were empanelled during the last five years with their length of practice at Bar at the time of empanelment are as follows:—

Name of Advocate	Date of empanelment	Practice at Bar
1. Shri Rajesh Jindal	20-5-1983	6 years
2. Shri B.B. Batra	29-4-1986	9½ years
3. Shri S.K. Goyal	23-7-1986	12 years

(c) The number of cases entrusted to each of the empanelled advocates and fees paid to them within the discretion of the Regional Office of the Bank at Rohtak during the last 5 years, as readily available with New Bank of India, is given in Annexure [See Appendix CXLIII, Annexure No. 152]. The Bank does not have a system of centrally compiling the legal charges paid within the discretion of the Branch Managers for legal work. Collection of such dispersed information is likely to involve time and expenditure which may not be commensurate with the results achieved.

(d) The Bank has reported that it has not lost any case in Rohtak District during the last 5 years.

(e) Does not arise.

Advocates engaged by Insurance Company in Rohtak

4010. SHRI JERLIE E. TARIANG: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) the names of the advocates with their details of practice at the Bar, who are panel advocates of each Insurance Company in Rohtak (Haryana) with the number of cases marked to them yearwise for the last 5 years;

(b) the total amount as professional fees paid to each of the Advocate yearwise by each Insurance Company in Rohtak to their panel Advocates during the last five years; and

(c) what steps the Government intends to take for the equitable distribution of cases among the panel advocates in Rohtak?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI JANARDHAN POOJARI): (a) and (b) The advocates who are engaged by Insurance Companies are empanelled in their Regional Offices. There is no Regional Office of any Insurance Company in Rohtak and the information sought for is not compiled separately as far as Rohtak is concerned.

(c) As far as possible, every Insurance Company makes efforts to distribute cases equitably by rotation to advocates in their panel, except in the contingency where either an advocate is not available at the time the case is marked or special expertise is required to handle a particular case.
